

An initiative of Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer

Go Green East Harlem!

Seminars for Supers

presents

Recycling Programs and Street Tree Care

Tuesday, May 13, 2008, 10 AM – 11:30 AM

Julia De Burgos Cultural Center

1680 Lexington Avenue (between 105th & 106th Streets)

New York, NY 10029

This seminar will show you ways to green your building inside and out. Find out what you don't know about recycling in New York City and learn about services that can help you improve your building's recycling program, get your tenants to recycle more and avoid fines. Hear how a few dedicated residents transformed Grant Houses into a community that recycles. Learn about efforts to plant thousands of street trees in Northern Manhattan, how this will benefit the community and what you can do to maintain your beautiful new greenery.

To RSVP, please call Christina Salvi at (212) 788-7989
or email csalvi@cenyc.org

Go Green East Harlem is a community-based sustainability initiative of Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer. Seminars for Supers is a series of free monthly workshops coordinated by a unique collaboration of organizations working under the Go Green East Harlem! umbrella to improve the quality of life in East Harlem.

For more information visit <http://cenyc.org/supergreen>